

Bringing a group to Lee Abbey

complete programme
planned for you

youth and children's sessions

a priceless opportunity to build community

Growing together

There is something remarkable about the way God brings unity to a church or group that spends time away together. A key part of Lee Abbey Devon's vision is to renew and serve the Church in exactly that way.

As a group you will find space to get to know each other better, receive practical teaching, and return to your community with new or renewed vision and unity.

Our Pastoral Team is on hand to listen to and pray with you as individuals too. We aim for every guest to return home stronger and more inspired in God – and for churches to be transformed!

All this is in the setting of a stunning 280-acre estate on the edge of Exmoor and you will be served by a 90-strong international Christian Community.

No hassle...

All meals are provided.

No need to organise washing-up or coffee rotas! Enjoy three home-cooked meals a day together, with provision for special diets.

Teaching, worship, afternoon activities and evening entertainment are included.

If you book the whole House we will usually discuss with you what topics you would like to cover, considering any particular requirements you have or any speaker you may wish to bring.

Young people and children

between 2 and 16 years old have their own sessions laid on in parallel with main teaching sessions. Your group can comprise up to one third under-16s.

Reductions and bursaries

are available. See the brochure for details. Additional help may be available; please contact the Warden directly to discuss this.

| Booking              | You can book up to 4 years ahead for groups of 20 or more. Bookings for the whole House normally need to be made at least a year in advance, but smaller groups can often be fitted in at much shorter notice into any midweek or weekend programme.  |                     |                  |                  |                  |                |               |        |                  |                  |                  |                  |                  |
| Room allocation      | Your group will be given a selection of single, twin, double, triple and family rooms throughout the House (it is not possible to request one particular type). You can then allocate people to those rooms according to their needs. You must allocate all rooms and request any necessary youth sessions at least 1 month before arrival.   |                     |                  |                  |                  |                |               |        |                  |                  |                  |                  |                  |
| External conferences | We do not usually book out the centre purely as a venue for your own conference, but we can work with you on a programme that meets your needs.   |                     |                  |                  |                  |                |               |        |                  |                  |                  |                  |                  |
